Course Description: ENC 1101. FRESHMAN ENGLISH I: 3 Credits, 3 Hours. (Fall, Spring, Summer) A college credit composition course that helps to develop skills for critical thinking, the writing process, and inquiry-based research. Freshman English I requires expository writing in various modes culminating in two documented research papers, one in MLA format and one in APA format.

Prerequisites: Successful completion of NFC developmental reading and writing course options or appropriate reading and writing placement scores on a postsecondary readiness test. Exemptions may exist; consult an academic advisor.

Corequisites: None

Instructor response time for phone and email messages: Expect a response from me within 24 hours on weekdays. Most weekends, I will check my email, but there are rare times where I may be out of town and may check my email on Monday morning if you do email me on the weekend.

Office Hours:

I am available in my office for face-to-face, phone, or Zoom meetings at the following times and days during this semester:

Mondays- 9:15 am-12:00 pm AND 1:15-4:15

Tuesdays- 10:30 am-12:00 pm AND 1:15-2:15

Wednesdays- 9:15 am-11:00 am

I am also available by appointment, but you must let me know 24-48 hours ahead of time that you want to meet with me, and we will negotiate a time and day that work for us to meet, either in-person or virtually.

Required text: Our book for this course is the Cengage MindTap book. There are several options of this book available at the bookstore, but the cheapest one is MindTap English Handbook, 1st Edition, Instant Access, 1 term (6 months) for $47.50. The ISBN for this book is 9781305259720.

Additional resource materials and/or supplies: A flash drive and a thesaurus. You will need daily access to the Internet and a computer. I also recommend that you use a jump drive to save your files, and periodically also store your documents drafts to an online cloud. You should also email yourself your drafts periodically so that if all else fails, you have a copy of your draft in your email. Losing your work is NOT an excuse to submit assignments late, and any assignments that are late as a result of technology problems ARE subject to the course late policy.

Minimum technological requirements and skills: Students are required to maintain access to D2L via the NFC website and check it consistently. Since this is an online course, all assignments, readings, grades, and announcements are through this site. As such, students will thus need continuous unfettered internet access to complete the course. Students must make arrangements to have access to the internet to fulfill assignments. For example, if an assignment requires watching a video on YouTube, students are expected to be able to access the video. There are various locations that provide internet access, such as NFC (available even in the parking lot), public libraries, and many restaurants. Students will also submit assignments via D2L. I do not accept emailed assignments. In addition, access to a word processor software such as Microsoft Word or Google Docs is necessary. All students have free access to Microsoft

Office programs. Students may access these programs via the NFC website. Contact Computer Services with any difficulties with access.

With the heavy use of the internet and word processing software, it is strongly recommended that students utilize a computer not a smartphone. Limitations placed on a student utilizing a smartphone instead of a computer are not considered a legitimate excuse for any difficulties arising during the course. The primary mode of communication outside of D2L is email, so ready access to your NFC GoMail is recommended

Course grading/evaluations:

2 Major Essays: 600 points

- First Essay: 250 points (Final draft due September 30th)
- Second Essay: 350 points (Final draft due December 2nd)

- Various Assignments 200 points
- Discussion Board posts 40 points (2 posts at 20 points each)

Grade Scale and Credit Requirements: In order to earn three credit hours for this course, students must earn an average grade of "C" or higher

Response time for posting of grades on D2L:

I will do my best to post grades for most assignments within 7 days. Expect the response time for the major essays to be up to 14 days

Midterm and/or final exam information: The final drafts of the two research papers essentially serve as the midterm and final in this course.

COURSE POLICY STATEMENTS:

Statement for Online courses: At the beginning of the semester, the instructor must report “no show” students for this course. “No show” indicates the student will be removed from the course. In order to be considered as attending the online course, the student must log in to D2L and complete “Getting Started,” step #1. Students will be prompted to complete the Mandatory Attendance quiz by the deadline as given on the course schedule; this quiz will verify students’ attendance in the course.

Daily Classroom Expectations:

- No disrespect of the instructor or classmates will be tolerated. Avoid distraction such as cell phones in the classroom.
- Assignments will be turned in on time.

Late Work:

Class activities, grammar exercises, discussion posts, and writing process assignments: There will be a deduction of 5% PER DAY for every day an assignment is late for up to one week. Any assignment that is submitted later than one week after the deadline will receive a grade of 60%, pre-assessment. Make plans to submit work early if you cannot turn work in when it is due.

Late rough drafts: Paragraph and essay drafts must be submitted within the set timeframe to receive detailed peer and instructor feedback. Drafts submitted outside of the timeframe are subject to receiving late feedback outside the regular timeframe of 7-14 days.

NFC INFORMATION AND POLICY STATEMENTS:

Academic Honesty

NFC is committed to providing a high-quality educational experience to all students, and students are expected to follow appropriate and honest academic practices. This information is available in the Academic Regulations section of the college catalog at www.nfc.edu. All cases of academic dishonesty will be reported to the Office of Academic Affairs. Assignments that are plagiarized are subject to receiving a zero.

Instructors use www.turnitin.com to review papers and projects for improper citation and/or plagiarism by comparing each student's report against billions of internet pages, a repository of works submitted to Turnitin in the past, and thousands of academic sources. A comparison document called the Similarity Report details the areas of a student paper that may have been documented incorrectly or used improperly. Refer to instructor's course policy statements for usage details.

Attendance Policy

Regular and consistent attendance facilitates student success. Absences beyond the equivalent of two weeks of class are considered to be excessive and thus may impact a student's course grade. Typically, two weeks of class would be described as follows:

- For a three-credit hour class that meets MW or TR: 4 class meetings (2 weeks).
- For a three-credit hour class that meets once a week for three hours: 2 class meetings (2 weeks).

If you are absent or cannot complete your work due to Covid-19 or some other illness, contact me ahead of the assignment deadline with proof via email, and I will be happy to work with you while you are out and recovering. Students are responsible for material covered during their absence. Refer to instructor makeup policy. For face-to-face courses, three tardies are subject to equaling an absence. Be sure to arrive on time, and do not leave the room unless there is an emergency.

If there is no verifiable participation within the first week of the term, a student will be dropped from the class for non-attendance. This includes classes delivered in face-to-face, online, or hybrid format. See instructor policy.

Textbook Purchases

All required course materials are listed in the Virtual Bookstore tab on NFC's homepage. Course materials purchased through Follett, NFC's only contracted vendor, can be charged against a student's financial aid account. Course materials may also be purchased from any other source with the understanding that these non-Follett purchases cannot be charged against a student's financial aid account.

Used Book Purchases

Students should check the Follett book list found in the Virtual Bookstore tab on NFC's homepage for correct titles and editions. Note: The ISBN listed in Follett may include both the required text and a required access code. When considering purchasing used books, students should be sure the purchase includes the ACCESS CODE in courses where required. If not, the access code must be purchased separately at an additional cost.

Students/Visitors: Where to Park on Campus

If you have any questions about parking on campus, contact Campus Security at (850) 973-0280. Park in designated parking spaces only. Do not park on the grass or in undesignated areas. Faculty/Staff parking areas are to be used only by full- and part-time employees of the college. Faculty and staff parking spaces are lined in yellow and are clearly marked "STAFF". Students and visitors can park in any spaces that are lined in white. NOTE: Some visitor parking spaces are lined in yellow with the word "Visitor" in the center. These are for visitors only. Students are not allowed to park in these spaces. Vehicles cannot be parked by backing into the space. Any vehicle that is illegally parked will be towed at the owner's expense. Refer to the college catalog or student handbook for all other parking regulations.

Enforcement: If a vehicle is parked illegally anywhere on campus, it is subject to be towed at the owner's expense ($85.00+). An illegally parked vehicle will be given a WARNING on the FIRST OFFENSE. There will be no second warning. Illegally parked vehicles will be TOWED ON THE SECOND OFFENSE. Signs will be displayed near parking areas with the name and address of the company to contact if the vehicle is towed.

The company that tows the vehicle is an independent company contracted by North Florida College. The College has no authority to negotiate towing fees and is not in any way responsible for damage or liability to the vehicle or its contents. The company that provides the towing service is:

Students should always be alert and use normal precautionary measures at all times. Campus crime statistics are documented annually and are available in the college catalog. Campus security can be contacted at 850-973-0280 from 7:30 a.m. until 11:30 p.m. for assistance while on campus with non-emergency security concerns.
